*Members of the JCL Advisory Committee

“As the Title 1 teacher I had the privilege of working with JCL tutors. Each one brought a different skill and presence to my program. I don’t think the students we worked with would have made the progress they did without your wonderful tutors’ help. Thank you so much.”

Academic Coach, Fair Oaks Elementary, Mount Diablo School District

The Jewish Coalition for Literacy (JCL) recruits and trains volunteers to become reading tutors in the San Francisco Bay Area’s under-resourced PUBLIC elementary schools. Tutors are matched with a K–3rd grade student, and spend the school year developing a strong relationship, reading aloud together and building literacy comprehension skills. JCL engages our volunteers in tikkun olam, healing the world, and welcomes all members of the community—students, seniors, parents and professionals—to participate in the lives of at-risk children, providing the confidence and the strategies that will enable them to become successful readers. JCL also trains parents to mentor their children. JCL is a project of the Jewish Community Relations Council, the Jewish Community Federation of San Francisco, the Peninsula, Marin and Sonoma Counties, and the Jewish Community Federation of the Greater East Bay.
