

YOM HA'SHOAH V'HAGEVURAH

Remembrance of the Holocaust and Acts of Courage

יום השואה והגבורה

YIDDISH CULTURE:

lost but not forgotten

THURSDAY, MAY 1, 2008 ♦ 27 NISAN 5768
6:30 pm Reading of Martyrs' Names
7:00 pm Service of Remembrance

PENINSULA TEMPLE SHOLOM
1655 Sebastian Drive, Burlingame
(650) 697-2266

The North Peninsula's 2008 Communitywide Service of Remembrance
The program will include a procession of survivors, a candlelighting ceremony, music and song, artwork and youth participation.

SPECIAL GUEST SPEAKER: CHAYALE ASH

Chayale Ash was born in Bessarabia (Romania) to well-known actors in the Yiddish theater. She traveled all over Eastern Europe, performing on stage with her parents in shtetls and cities. Following the war, Chayale established Yiddish theatre groups wherever she went—Poland, Israel and Philadelphia—and brought Yiddish theatre performances to London and South Africa and throughout the US and Canada. Now living in the San Jose area, she continues to share with others her knowledge of Yiddish theatre and her rich experiences.

Open to the public—no cost to attend. For more information contact JCRC: (650) 961-1922

SPONSORS: Peninsula Temple Sholom; Peninsula Sinai Congregation; Peninsula Temple Beth El; Temple Beth Jacob; Holocaust Center of Northern California/Oral History Project; Jewish Community Federation of San Francisco, the Peninsula, Marin and Sonoma Counties; Jewish Community Relations Council; Peninsula Jewish Community Center; Ronald C. Wornick Jewish Day School.